

Valentine around the world

1. Argentina
2. Ghana
3. Czech Republic
4. appealing
5. duration
6. loved one
7. reciprocate
8. mark
9. aspect
10. primarily
11. dedicate
12. deserve
13. relate
14. hug
15. establish
16. opt for ~
17. alternative
18. poet
19. fitting
20. unfitting

1. In Argentina, Valentine's Day is actually Valentine's Week. They celebrate for a duration of 1 week in July. Which is more appealing, Valentine's Day or Valentine's Week?
2. Argentinian couples give candy and get a kiss. On Valentine's Day, if you gave candy to a loved one, how would you like it to be reciprocated?
3. In South Korea, people mark the 14th of every month with a celebration of love. For example, February 14th is Valentine's Day, April 14th is Black Day, September 14th is Photo Day and December 14th is Hug Day. Which other aspects of love have their own special day in South Korea?
4. Valentine's Day is primarily dedicated to love. What else deserves to be celebrated every month?
5. In Ghana, February 14th is National Chocolate Day. What food related day do you want to establish?
6. Why do you think Ghana opted for Chocolate and not an alternative snack?
7. In the Czech Republic, Valentine's Day is on May 1st. Couples visit a statue of a famous romantic poet. Where do you think is a fitting place for couples to visit on Valentine's Day?
8. Where is an unfitting place for couples to visit on Valentine's Day?