

The nearest one to Earth is the Sun.
Many others are visible to the naked eye at night.
But you can't see them in the daytime.
They are beautiful and shiny.

It is a tall, thin, round vehicle.
This word actually means a type of engine.
The first ones were used in China in the 1200s.
It launches into space.

It is Earth's only natural satellite.
It is about one-quarter of Earth in diameter.
It is yellow.
Japanese people believe there is a rabbit on it.

About 71% of its surface is made up of water.
The remaining 29% of its surface is land.
It formed over 4.5 billion years ago.
It is the third planet from the Sun.

It is an extraterrestrial life.
However, it has yet been conclusively detected.
It is coming from another world.
A lot of people think it has big eyes and a thin body.

It is the second-smallest planet in the Solar System.
It is the fourth planet from the Sun.
It was first explored in 1965.
It is called the Red Planet.

People have observed the sky throughout history,
and have sometimes seen unusual sights.
It is an unidentified flying object.
Many people believe it is from outer space.

It is an object intentionally placed into orbit
in outer space.
It gathers information for reconnaissance, mapping,
monitoring the weather, ocean, forest, etc.