Greek mythology has many fun and exciting stories. The gods lived on Mount Olympus, the highest mountain in Greece. Zeus was the king of the gods. He could make thunder. His brother Poseidon was the god of the sea. Another brother, Hades, ruled the underworld.

One famous story is about Medusa. Long ago, she was a beautiful woman. But she made the goddess Athena angry, so Athena changed her. Medusa's hair became snakes! If someone looked at her face, they turned into stone. Many people were scared of her. She lived alone in a dark cave. One day, a hero named Perseus went to stop her. He used a shiny shield like a mirror, so he didn't look at her directly. He cut off her head. Even after she died, her head still had power!

Greek myths have many other cool stories. People in ancient Greece loved these stories. Even now, we can enjoy them in books and movies. Greek mythology is full of adventure!
