Halloween

Role play

A: Hey, October is finally here! Why don't we have a Halloween party this year? It'll be so much fun if everyone hangs out together!

B: That sounds like fun! I'd love to. When and where should we have it?

A: How about Saturday, October 24th, at my apartment? I can decorate the room with some jack-o'-lanterns and spooky lights.

B: Saturday is perfect for me. But should we wear costumes? I need to look for one if we do.

A: Definitely! Wearing a costume is the best part of Halloween. You can buy a cheap one online or at a 100-yen shop.

B: Okay, I'll check online tonight. By the way, what should we do about food and drinks?

A: I suggest asking everyone to bring their own favorite snacks. I'll prepare some soft drinks and Halloween-themed cupcakes.

B: Great idea! That will save us a lot of time. Let's text everyone on LINE soon.

Halloween

Answer the questions as Person B.

1 Are you going to buy your costume or make it yourself?

2 What kind of costume are you going to wear?

3 Do you have any food allergies or anything you can't eat?

4 What kind of snacks are you going to bring?

5 Did anyone reply to your LINE message yet?

6 How many people do you think will come to the party?

7 Can you come early to help me decorate the room?

8 What kind of music should we play during the party?

Questions

1 What vegetable is used to make a jack-o'-lantern?

2 In some cultures, walking past this animal is associated with bad luck due to old superstitions. What is it?

3 This classic monster is a symbol of Halloween. According to stories, they avoid garlic and sunlight. What is it?

4 This character is covered in white bandages. In history, this method was used to preserve bodies for a long time. What is it?

5 This fairy tale character is famous for eating a poisoned apple given by her stepmother. She is known to cooperate with seven dwarfs who work in a mine. Who is she?

6 These spirits are frequently seen in haunted houses. They are often represented as white sheets floating in the air to scare people. What are they?

7 These creatures are frequently featured in modern horror movies. They are described as walking dead bodies that move very slowly but are difficult to destroy. What are they?

8 Farmers originally placed this figure in fields to prevent birds from eating their crops. Now, people often use it as a temporary autumn decoration. What is it?

9 This nocturnal bird is associated with wisdom and Halloween. It has large eyes and is capable of turning its head almost all the way around. What is it?

10 This is the only mammal capable of true flight. They sleep upside down during the day and are often associated with vampires. What is it?

11 This fairy tale character must leave the royal ball before midnight. Her beautiful dress temporarily turns back into rags when the clock strikes twelve. Who is she?

Questions

1 What vegetable is used to make a jack-o'-lantern?

It is made of a pumpkin.

2 In some cultures, walking past this animal is associated with bad luck due to old superstitions. What is it?

It is a black cat.

3 This classic monster is a symbol of Halloween. According to stories, they avoid garlic and sunlight. What is it?

It is a vampire.

4 This character is covered in white bandages. In history, this method was used to preserve bodies for a long time. What is it?

It is a mummy.

5 This fairy tale character is famous for eating a poisoned apple given by her stepmother. She is known to cooperate with seven dwarfs who work in a mine. Who is she?

She is Snow White.

6 These spirits are frequently seen in haunted houses. They are often represented as white sheets floating in the air to scare people. What are they?

They are ghosts.

7 These creatures are frequently featured in modern horror movies. They are described as walking dead bodies that move very slowly but are difficult to destroy. What are they?

They are zombies.

8 Farmers originally placed this figure in fields to prevent birds from eating their crops. Now, people often use it as a temporary autumn decoration. What is it?

It is a scarecrow.

9 This nocturnal bird is associated with wisdom and Halloween. It has large eyes and is capable of turning its head almost all the way around. What is it?

It is an owl.

10 This is the only mammal capable of true flight. They sleep upside down during the day and are often associated with vampires. What is it?

It is a bat.

11 This fairy tale character must leave the royal ball before midnight. Her beautiful dress temporarily turns back into rags when the clock strikes twelve. Who is she?

She is Cinderella.